HILLTOPPERS GIVEN FIRST ROUGH WORK

Two Elevens at Georgetown Instructed in Breaking Up Interference. Four New Players Report.

In an effort to have the candidates for the Georgetown University football team in readiness for the scrimmage practice, which is scheduled to be held today, Coach Exendine put the squad of thirty-three men through their first real rough work yesterday at the Hilltop.

The candidates for the line positions were drilled in breaking through to block punts and also given instructions in clipping the interference on end runs. The work which the team was put through could not be called scrimmaging as the players were forced to halt when the roughing started, but the drilling showed on the candidates when halt was called.

Quite a time was spent in tackling the dummy while the forward pass was used in the early practice, each player being given a chance to shoot the ball and also to receive it. The players were also put through the general rudimentary work, while the black-board talk held yesterday morning was the longest of the season.

A quarter of new men reported for their first workout. Johnny Mahlum, the big guard and full back of last season's varsity eleven, was on hand and was ordered into the rough work. The new men were: John Mahlum, School of Pennsylvania, a center; Cass, of the Salem High School, a center, and Davis, of the Hamilton Institute of Brooklyn, N. Y., were the other candidates to report.

Tigers Kept on Jump.
Princeton, N. J., Sept. 14.—Although the excessive heat prevented them from going into heavy football togs, Speedy Rush worked his Tiger squad both morning and afternoon and had them report in the evening for a blackboard talk on the few formations that are being used in the early practice. With the first game a week from Saturday with Georgetown, Princeton is getting down to real work.

Wells Is Promoted.
Cardiff, Sept. 14.—Bombardier Wells, the heavy-weight pugilist now in the British army, has been promoted to sergeant-major of the Twentieth Welsh regiment.

Lafayette Men Train at Gap.
Delaware Water Gap, Sept. 14.—Coach Wilmer G. Crowell has assembled at the Lafayette training camp at the Delaware Water Gap the most promising bunch of football material that Lafayette has had in at least seven years.

Syracuse Players Report.
Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 14.—Forty candidates for the Syracuse University football team reported for the first workout yesterday at the University. The players went through a drill in fundamentals under the direction of Head Field Coach Frank J. O'Neill.

Candidates for Harvard Team.
Cambridge, Mass., Sept. 14.—Seventy-eight candidates for the Harvard football team reported for the first practice of the season. Under the direction of twelve coaches, they spent an hour in light drill and in receiving instructions. Beginning today there will be two sessions daily for two weeks until college opens. By that time Capt. Mahan expects more than a hundred men to come to camp.

Heat Retards Yale Squad.
New Haven, Conn., Sept. 14.—Yale's football squad at Madison, Conn., is still retarded by the hot weather, but in spite of that fact put in nearly four hours of work under Coach Talbot and Capt. Alex Wilson yesterday morning. The arrival yesterday for two hours and a half the squad of seventy received individual instruction in the rudiments of the game. Late yesterday afternoon there was an hour and a half signal practice. The arrival yesterday were R. Kent and Von Holt, tackles; Welser, back, and Gault.

This College Abandons Football.
Due to serious football accidents to students a year ago, that branch of athletics has been banned by the faculty of Seton Hall College, at South Orange, N. J. This announcement was made by Rev. John C. McClary, vice president of the college and athletic director.

Cleveland Is Shut Out In Third Game of Series Dumont Delivers Goods And Looks Like "Find"

Dumont Makes Debut and Allows Indians but Two Hits. Score Is 3 to 0.

COMBAT A SNAPPY ONE

Griffen Get to Carter in Closing Chapters for Enough Tallies to Win.

By WILLIAM PEET
Making it three in a row from the tail-end Cleveland Indians came easier yesterday than on the two previous occasions, for young Dumont who was given his first chance to pitch in fast company allowed but two hits, while the Griffins jumped on Carter in the seventh and eighth innings and pounded out three runs. The score was 3 to 0.

Griffith is apparently in earnest about trying out all of his new talent, for Dumont has only been with the club a few days, and was shoved right into the fray.

Turner Barber played right field, cracked out a couple of hits and scored a run. He looks like a promising kid, one who will bear watching. "Making heroes out of young pitchers seems to be our specialty these days," sadly murmured Manager Lee Fohl as he trudged wearily to the dressing room after the combat.

Judging from the shouts of the small crowd, the Indians made very much of a hero out of Dumont, but the fact remains, nevertheless, that Dumont pitched fine ball and well deserved the verdict.

Carter Also in Form.
Nick Carter, former Cleveland amateur who was once given a trial with Connie Mack, in Philadelphia, was Dumont's opponent, and until the seventh the Nationals could do very little with the Carter brand of pitching.

The game was well played and snappy, the only error being charged to Steve O'Neill who dropped the ball on Grane's throw to the plate which permitted a runner to score.

It was not until the seventh inning that Washington could advance a runner farther than second base. Chick Gandil opened this chapter with a clear single to left. Shanker sacrificed, putting Gandil on second. Henry banged a short single to left and Gandil dashed for the plate. The throw from Grane was perfect and had the runner beaten, but Steve O'Neill dropped the ball after he had tagged Gandil and Empire Connolly ruled that the runner was out.

In the eighth inning the Griffins snatched two more runs which were not needed, except for the purpose of fattening up batting averages. Barber scratched a single through Evans and went to second when Chapman tossed out Foster. Milan crashed to right field, Smith misjudging the ball which resulted in a triple for Milan. Barber scored on this wallop, and Milan a few minutes later crossed the plate. The Griffins uncorked a wild pitch. The score:

NOTES OF THE GAME.
Nothing very unusual, but a lot of baseball was on tap yesterday at our ball park.

The first ball pitched by Dumont in his first big league game was a strike, and it had something to do with the result.

Henry pegged hard to second base in the sixth inning when Smith attempted to steal, but Capt. Mac was there with the one-hand snuff and tagged out Smith.

Not a Cleveland hit a ball on the ground until the third inning, when Carter sent a weak roller into the outfield.

Dumont pitched himself out of a tight hole in the fifth inning. After two men were on he felled a punt and caught a runner at third for a quick and perfect play.

Washington players and Jim Shaw had a lot of laughing over the bench in the fifth inning and Tommy Connolly came in for a lot of kidding. Tommy held his own, as he has always done.

Chapman fumbled Milan's roller just long enough to make a clean play at second on Barber in the sixth, and to all it looked as if the youngster had the ball beaten, but Umpa Chilli saw it differently.

Zeb Milan came through with a drowsy catch in the seventh frame when he came tearing in and grabbed Turner's Texas leaguer. It looked like a sure enough hit until Clyde got started.

Grane made a beautiful throw to the plate to catch Gandil on a hit. It was a fast game and a quick play.

Chapman made a great stop at McBride's grounder near third base, but was not in position to throw the ball. Mac getting a life, although Chapman did his best to get out of it.

Smith, in going after Milan's fly ball in deep right, tripped over his own feet. Milan reached third on the play.

Milan had Carter all worked up in the eighth when he was on the bench. At last Clyde got him to uncork a wild pitch, and it was all over.

WILL PILOT SYRACUSE ELEVEN

Capt. Walter Rose and Coach F. J. O'Neill, of the Syracuse football team.

Although the Syracuse eleven this year will be largely made up of new men, Syracuse isn't much perturbed over the fact that she lost most of her regular football stars by graduation last spring.

"I have never seen a more likely looking bunch of candidates since I have been in Syracuse," said Coach F. J. O'Neill. "Last year I had to find good men. This year my job is to place the good men I have."

The team will be largely made up of sophomores, which means that Syracuse will have a good team of veterans for the next three years.

Walter Rose, captain of the team and star half-back of the 1914 eleven, will go back to his old job at left half and Wilkenson, another veteran, will play at the other half-back position.

Six other players were named as regulars. Newberry, Slater, O'Connell, Schultz, and Wakefield are other prominent candidates for back-field positions.

Schlachter, 240 pounds, and White, 250 pounds, of the freshman team last year, are pretty sure of jobs at guard.

INTERBUREAU TARGET MATCHES ARE CLOSE

Marksmen of Department of Interior Hold Tournament on Guards' Rifle Range.

A great deal of interest has been manifested by the employees of the Department of the Interior in the interbureau match of the Interior Department Home Club Target Association, which was held at the Congress Heights rifle range of the National Guard last Saturday.

Six of the eight bureaus of the department and the secretary's office were represented by teams of three men each. The ranges over which the firing was done were 300, 500 and 600 yards; two sighting shots and ten shots for record at each range; position prone. The Krag rifle, caliber .30, model 1898, and service ammunition were used exclusively in this match.
